

Home Delivery Program

Homebound but still want to enjoy the library?

If you have a visual impairment or physical disability that limits your ability to get to the library, we can bring the library to you!

Apply to be in the Home Delivery program and choose from a wide variety of print books, large print books, audio books on CD, DVDs, and magazines.

Just complete the application and send it to the Senior Outreach Librarian, Erin Isaacson at eisaacson@pclib.org.

NOTE: Home Delivery patrons are not responsible for late fees. These patrons are responsible for the costs of lost or heavily damaged items.

Feel free to call with any questions at 630-483-4774.
