POPLAR CREEK PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTIRCT

Room Naming Rights Policy

The Poplar Creek Public Library District (PCPLD) Board of Trustees reserves the right to sell naming rights of various rooms within the physical facilities to businesses and entities as is appropriate and beneficial to the library. PCPLD Trustees also reserve the right to name an unnamed room in memoriam of a library related individual deemed deserving of such an honor.

This policy will serve as a guideline when accepting naming rights requests from outside entities. The following is a list of potential rooms and prices are negotiable along with the length of time the room retains the requested name.

Rooms	Cost
International Hallway	$ 10,000.00
The Studio	$ 15,000.00
The Café	$ 15,000.00
Meeting Room 2	$ 10,000.00
Meeting Room 3	$ 10,000.00
Quiet Reading Room	$ 10,000.00
Teen Spot	$ 15,000.00
Empire Rooms	$ 5,000.00
StoryTime Room	$ 10,000.00
General Study Rooms	$ 4,000.00
Teen Study Rooms	$ 4,000.00
Children's Study Rooms	$ 4,000.00
Outdoor Garden	$ 10,000.00
Endcap Shelving	$ 250.00

General Guidelines

1. Purchase of naming rights is for 20 years unless otherwise negotiated.

2. A tasteful plaque will be posted either just inside the room, or near the entrance to the room.

3. The library reserves the right to edit the final text on the plaque.

4. Rights may be purchased for any length of time less than 20 years and prices will be adjusted accordingly.

Approved by the PCPLD Board of Trustees April 19, 2018; Updated May 16, 2019; July 22, 2022; May 16, 2024